

4.4.2> There are established systems and procedures for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities- laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc.

Ans:- For Maintenance of Infrastructure a full time contractor is appointed to look after the maintenance of all building in the campus by managing committee.

Funds for maintenance are allocated and maintenance works are executed through AMC(Annual Maintenance Contract) for laboratory and library equipments and CCTV.

The supervisor and support staff look after the maintenance of water supply, electricity, and related work and also for cleanliness of the college building.